

INSIGHT OF CHILD RIGHTS WEEK CELEBRATION

THEME - INCLUSION, FOR EVERY CHILD

NOVEMBER 14TH - NOVEMBER 20TH

Background

Srijan Foundation has been working for the comprehensive development of adolescent children since its inception. Srijan Foundation has a vision of Creating a better world for women and children. SF currently works with over 60,000 adolescents and adheres to the structure of its inclusive development process.

Srijan has always believed in a participating and engaging approach while working with children from the beginning. To promote children's participation and their rights, the following diversified platforms and opportunities have been created to ensure children's cognitive development within the community.

IN 2022 THE NATIONAL THEME OF CHILDREN'S WEEK RELATES TO ARTICLE 27 OF THE UNCRC - ALL CHILDREN HAVE THE RIGHT TO AN ADEQUATE STANDARD OF LIVING INCLUDING HOUSING, FOOD AND CLOTHES THAT SUPPORT THEIR DEVELOPMENT.

Overview

Children are the future of our country and to ensure they receive the right start; Srijan Foundation works towards building a nation where every child receives a quality education and an opportunity to build a better future.

The program by Srijan Foundation focuses on children's participation, resilience, and overall development by making relevant stakeholders like parents, teachers, private players, and the government accountable for child rights.
